

The journal “ONCOLOGY” (included in the The list of scientific professional editions of Ukraine (medicine, biology), the order of the Ministry of Education and Science of Ukraine of April 07, 2022 № 320: E1 (091) “Biology and biochemistry”; I2 (222) “Medicine”; I6 (224) “Medical diagnostic and treatment technologies”), accepts articles that has not been published previously elsewhere and are not under consideration for publication in other publishing structures. Responsibility for the reliability of information and the originality of the submitted materials is of the authors. In the process of editing works, the editors reserve the right to change the style, but not the content of the articles. The papers executed without observance of requirements of edition are not registered.

The manuscript is sent by email (oncology_kiev@ukr.net) or submitted online on the journal website (<https://nasu-periodicals.org.ua/index.php/oncology>) on the OJS platform.

The journal “Oncology” follows an Open Access policy. Full texts of all articles are available for free to all users on the journal immediately upon publication. Publishing scientific materials in the journal is completely free of charge for all authors: no fees are charged for submission, peer review, editing, publication, or any other expenses.

The journal is governed by the rules approved by the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE), the recommendations of WMA Declaration of Helsinki (Ethical Principles for Medical Research Involving Human Participants) and the European Convention for the Protection of Vertebrate Animals used for Experimental and Other Scientific Purposes (Strasbourg, 1986). Information on the availability of written informed consent from patients for the use of their data (clinical trials) or on compliance with bioethical standards (research involving laboratory animals) must be indicated in the OBJECT AND METHODS OF RESEARCH.

Refusal to publish may not be accompanied by an explanation of its cause and cannot be considered a negative conclusion about the scientific and practical value of the work. The works sent to the editorial staff are not returned. After publication, all copyrights belong to the editorial staff.

The main characteristics of the oncoepidemiological process in Ukraine should be listed in accordance with the latest issue of the Bulletin of the National Cancer Register of Ukraine and are included in the REFERENCES.

The manuscript can be written in Ukrainian or English and should be accompanied by 6–8 keywords and a structured summary (necessarily in Ukrainian and English). The Summary should reflect the Aim, Object and Methods, Results, Conclusions. It is necessary to specify author(s) name(s), ORCID and their affiliation, the full address of corresponding authors

(E-mail). Manuscript must be submitted as a Word file (doc, docx). Manuscripts should be no longer than 3500 words excluding the title page, abstract, and references (for reviews — 4000 words).

Original and problematic work should be clearly structured and divided into sections with headings: INTRODUCTION, OBJECT AND METHODS OF RESEARCH, RESULTS AND DISCUSSION, CONCLUSIONS, ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, REFERENCES.

Graphs and diagrams must be presented in Excel format. Photos are given in separate files in.tif or .jpg format with a resolution of 300 points per inch (the horizontal dimension is not less than 90 mm).

Tables and figures (links and notes to tables, signatures to figures placed directly below them) should be placed on separate pages and numbered with Arabic numerals in accordance with their mention in the text.

All physical quantities and units are given in SI; terms — according to anatomical and histological nomenclatures; diagnosis — according to the current International Classification of Diseases; medicines — by international names; test systems, reagents, equipment, devices — with the indication of the producer, the country.

References. References are given in the text by numbers in square brackets. Numbering of references is carried out in the order of mention in the text. Unpublished data and personal messages are not listed in the list of literature. Authors may not refer to dissertation abstracts, congress and conference proceedings. All references must be in English or in Latin transcription.
